MOUNT KENYA SAFARI CLUB

FACTSHEET

CONNECTING YOU TO THE BEST OF MOUNT KENYA

Fairmont Mount Kenya Safari Club is the second stop of a 3-stop magical journey in Kenya by Fairmont. The first stop being Fairmont The Norfolk, a landmark of Nairobi, built in 1904; and the third being Fairmont Mara Safari Club, on the edge of Mara River in an intimate conservancy named Ol Chorro, the first conservancy belonging to local communities and its unique sanctuary sheltering the two last white rhinos of Masai Mara.

Built almost a century ago by lovers, passionnates, adventurers and then Hollywood celebrities, this unique property in Kenya aims to celebrate the past and future of Kenya and to offer magic to its guests.

Fairmont Mount Kenya Safari Club is also dedicated to the protection of Mount Kenya endangered wildlife and flora through the breathtaking and lush Mount Kenya Wildlife conservancy which shelters a unique program of preservation of the most endangered and almost fairy antelope mountain bongo. During their stay guests will have the privilege to observe 70 out of 100 Bongos in the world, within the conservancy as well as in a dedicated sanctuary, the very first and most admired sanctuary of Kenya. Fairmont Mount Kenya Safari Club offers its guests a list of dream activities from golf to tennis, outdoor luxe dinners, climbing the second highest peak in Africa and of course tracking the captivating endangered mountain bongo.
