MOUNT KENYA SAFARI CLUB

LEISURE FACTSHEET

CONNECTING YOU TO THE BEST OF MOUNT KENYA

Fairmont Mount Kenya Safari Club is located within the lush Mount Kenya Wildlife Conservancy, which is dedicated to the protection of Mount Kenya's endangered wildlife and flora. The conservancy shelters a unique program of preservation of the most endangered and fairy mountain bongo antelope. During their stay, guests will have the privilege to observe the rare mountain bongos, within the conservancy and as well as in a dedicated sanctuary, the very first and most admired sanctuary of Kenya. Fairmont Mount Kenya Safari Club offers its guests a list of dream activities from golf, tennis, outdoor luxe dinners, visting the animal orphanage and tracking the captivating endangered mountain bongo.

Built almost a century ago by lovers, passionates, adventurers and then Hollywood celebrities, this unique property in Kenya aims to celebrate the past and future of Kenya and to offer magic to its guests.

Fairmont Mount Kenya Safari Club is the second stop of a 3-stop magical journey in Kenya by Fairmont. The first stop being Fairmont The Norfolk, a landmark of Nairobi, built in 1904; and the third being Fairmont Mara Safari Club, on the edge of Mara River in an intimate conservancy named Olchoro, the first conservancy belonging to local communities and its unique sanctuary sheltering the last two Southern white rhinos of Maasai Mara.
