ELKONIN TEL AVIV

THE VERY FIRST HOTEL IN TEL AVIV

- Tel Aviv's very first hotel completed in 1913, for their pioneering owners Malka and Menahem Elkonin.
- Shortly after, "Elkonin" Became a high, popular place of Neve Tzedek's social life; Malka and her husband loved to entertain and host parties.
- Historical figures have visited the hotel; Einstein, King Abdullah of Jordan and the first prime minister of Israel, David Ben Gurion.
- Beautifully restored and augmented in 2023, it is the first MGallery in Tel Aviv, part of the Accor Group.
- The 44 room hotel features two bars (ground-floor and on rooftop), on the rooftop floor, a swimming pool has been added.
- It is a home to two exclusive and renowned brands: a Robuchon restaurant and a spa by Clarins.
- Elkonin Tel Aviv MGALLERY Hotel collection, is the synthesis of Israeli creativity and French elegance into one singular gem in the heart of Neve Tzedek.
